Housing - Subfamilies

Total Number of Subfamilies:

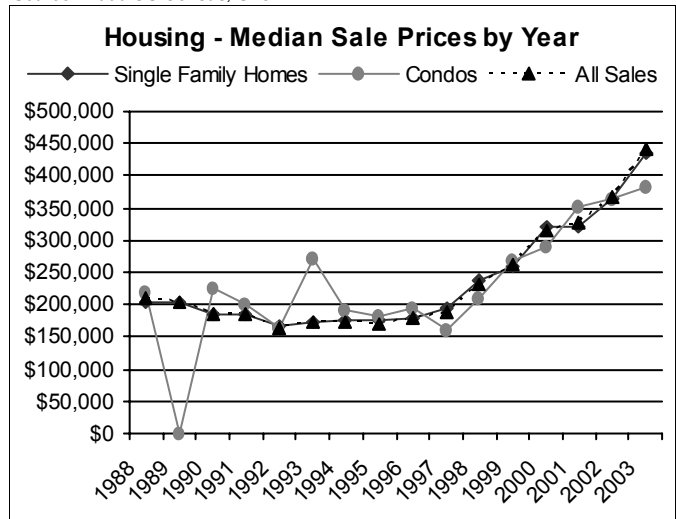

1990: 219

2000: 126

A subfamily is a married couple (with or without children) or a single parent with one or more never-married children under the age of 18, residing with and related to the householder, but not including the householder or the householder's spouse.

When grown children move back to the parental home with their own children or spouse, they are considered a subfamily.
