

Telecommunication Design Review Committee

CHARGE

The Telecommunication Design Review Committee reviews all applications for Telecommunication facilities that are disguised or hidden on an existing building, for suitability and effectiveness of the design.

The application must be reviewed within 21 days of filing with the Building Commissioner. Review will be at a public meeting of the Committee and decision will be by majority vote.

See Section III G. 5 of the Zoning Bylaws.